Winter Classes and Workshops

Winter Classes and Workshops are getting underway here in Cardigan country. The first was a photography workshop on taking better pictures with Scott Ainsworth as instructor. Plans and publicity for others are progressing nicely. Thanks to Carrie Fradkin for producing us an attractive classes brochure and to Liz Houghton and Ramona Helf for helping to get these out. A customer mailing list has been created and we will add to it. Space is being offered nominally at the Depot Street Studios for classes and workshops needing a location. Teachers don't forget to send me your syllabus and contract before your class or workshop begins, and your enrollment list, when you get one, so that you can get paid! At the next membership meeting we will take instructor sign-ups for a spring cycle, so bring your brainstorms. The survey box at the gallery has provided some useful market research which will become the seed ideas for our next group of classes.

Joan Thomson, Program Committee"

Board Meeting.

The Gallery will still open Friday January 12th at 10:00 am but the opening reception has been changed to the following Friday January 19th from 6-8 pm.

Discussed selling basic art supplies in the Gallery, if space allows. This will be discussed at the January members meeting.

Jane Darling will be having membership cards printed to hand out to all members of CMAA. She has been asking local supply stores for discounts when presented with a member card. More on this at a later date.

Class brochures are available in the gallery. Joan Thompson has compiled a mailing list and we were able to mail out 90 brochures. Registration forms for classes can be found in the filing cabinet in the gallery and are also available on line.

Names were drawn for the Holiday Raffle items. Winners will be notified by phone and asked to pick up their works of art at the gallery during regular hours.

Memberships and Dues

All dues will be due annually on February 1st. If you have joined or paid your dues within the last 6 months (July 1st 06 - present) you are up to date for the year 2007. New members will be receiving their newsletter starting in February. Also new members will be receiving a Packet of info about the Association. All paid up members will be receiving a membership card and list of stores with addresses, phone numbers, and discounts you can receive on art supplies. These will be mailed as soon as available. You may pay your dues at the gallery or mail them to: Cardigan Mountain Art Association, c/o Jane Darling, P.O. Box 523, Canaan, N.H. 03741. Thank You

Combined Visions Postcards Available at the Gallery

Postcards for the new show are available at the gallery. They are due to arrive January 19. We will be allowing more time for future postcards and make them available before the shows are put up.
